

ROMANCE WOULD RUIN US

Do I look like I'm crazy, maybe missing a screw?
Why would I wreck such a perfect arrangement
By falling in love with you?
Romance Would Ruin Us
I'd rather be friends
Friendship's forever.
Love ends.

So I don't have a lover, so you're here to apply
Why should I trade in the best pal I've got
When we know it might go awry?
Romance Would Ruin Us
I'd rather be friends
Friendship's forever.
Love ends.

Affairs seem to come and go
Why, I don't have a clue
I've had so many Mister Rights
But only one of you

You're a fact of my life now, not some fly-by-night fling
Though there's a promise of love that might grow
Right now let's not change a thing

Romance Would Ruin Us
I'd rather be friends
Friendship's forever.
Love . . . love . . .
Oh, what the hell ...

Romance Won't Ruin Us
We'll find new friends
Who needs forever
Let's be lovers until it ends,
Romance Won't Ruin us, etc.

Music and Lyrics by Eileen Valentino
© 2001

The Story Behind the Song...

I worked very closely with a few musicians in my career and occasionally mused on what would happen if we ever got involved romantically. Disaster! I was sure of it. Smart enough to never be tempted, all I ever did was write this song about it.